Bimalesh Sahoo

User Experience Designer

With over 5+ years of professional experience, I'm a skilled designer, equipped with both technical and artistic expertise to create design solutions that meet business needs. Collaborating with tech, business and design teams, I have a strong grasp of designing systems for mobile, iPad, and web applications. I'm an efficient problem-solver, experienced in team collaborations to deliver timely projects. With a learning mindset, I continually improve my skills and techniques for each new project.
